State Method on Cost Effectiveness of Employer-Based Group Health Plans

The state uses the Secretary's method as provided in the State Medicaid Manual, Section 3910 with the exception that all applicants who are seeking Medicaid eligibility under the provisions of 1902(e)(5) of the Act—and that have access to employer-based group health plans that cover inpatient hospital are determined, without further review, to meet the cost-effective requirements. All other cases are reviewed individually using the Secretary's methodology.
